REASONS THAT PEOPLE GIVE FOR GETTING MARRIED

PLSAL.ORG

If you plan to marry
but are not yet married,
consider why you want to get married.

If you are already married,
then you need to understand that whatever your reason for marrying was,
the important thing now
is to live for God and look to Him for help in having a good marriage.

There are many reasons why people get married.

The following are some reasons
that I have observed:

¿Are you kidding?
She’s rich!

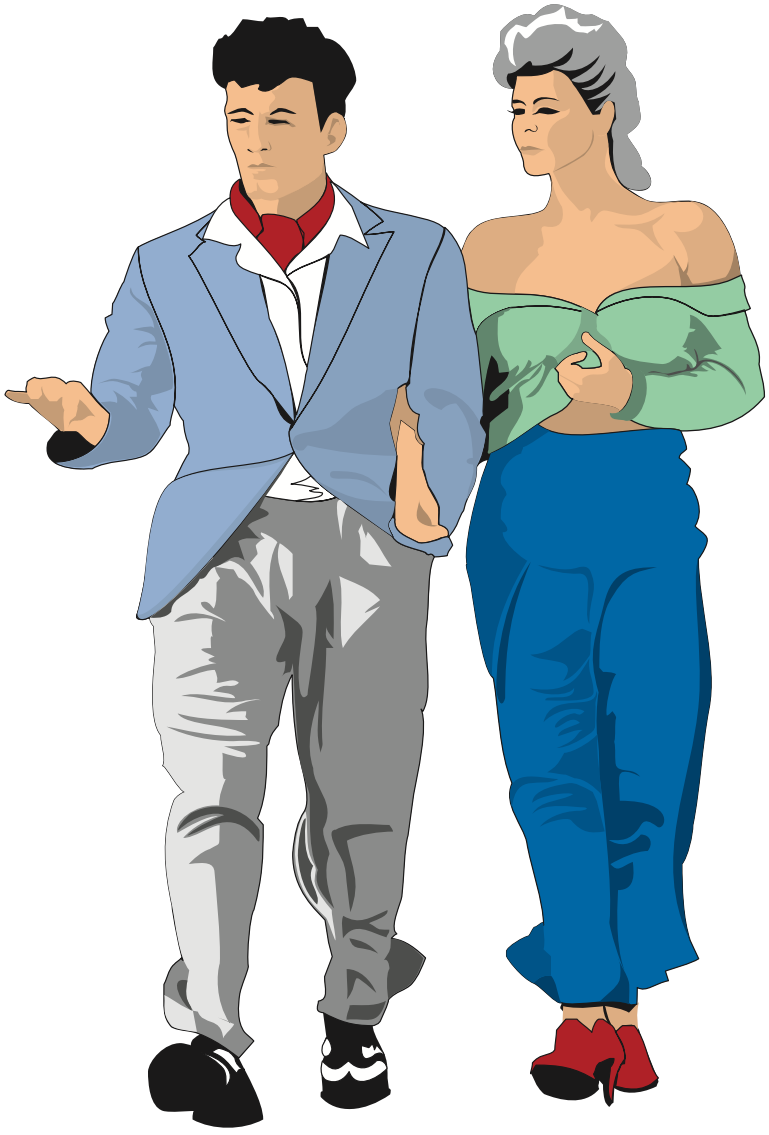

He had a high position at his company. I was looking for someone who could give me a comfortable life.

Plsal.org

We both are from wealthy backgrounds. Our marriage helps to maintain the stature of our families.

I saw her, she looked pretty good, and I decided to take a chance with her.

Plsal.org

I needed to get out of my parent's house… I was sick of being there.

I am gay, but being married to a woman is more acceptable in society.

Plsal.org

I would rather be with a woman. I am a lesbian, but society is more accepting if I am married to a man.

Plsal.org

I have relationships with many women, but being married gives me a more acceptable appearance in society.

Plsal.org

I love being with all men, but being married gives me an appearance of purity and I really like that.

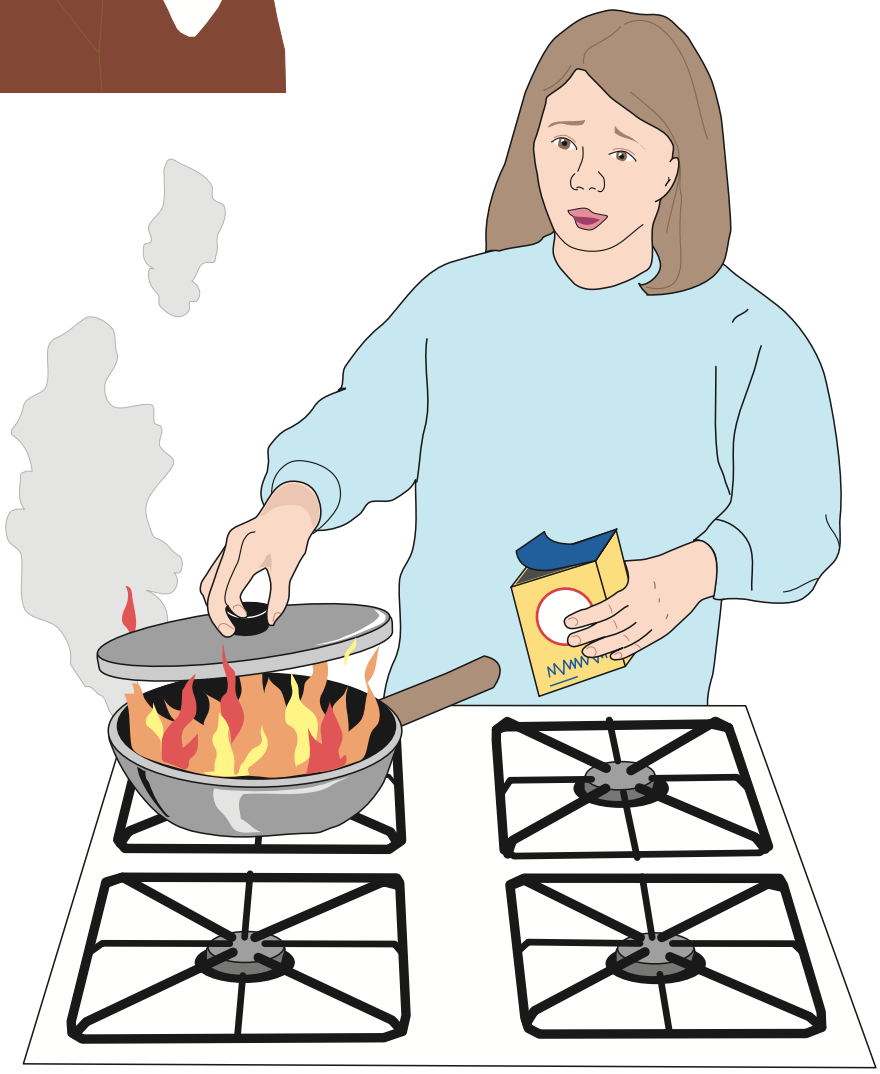

Plsal.org

I needed his company, and he needed my money.

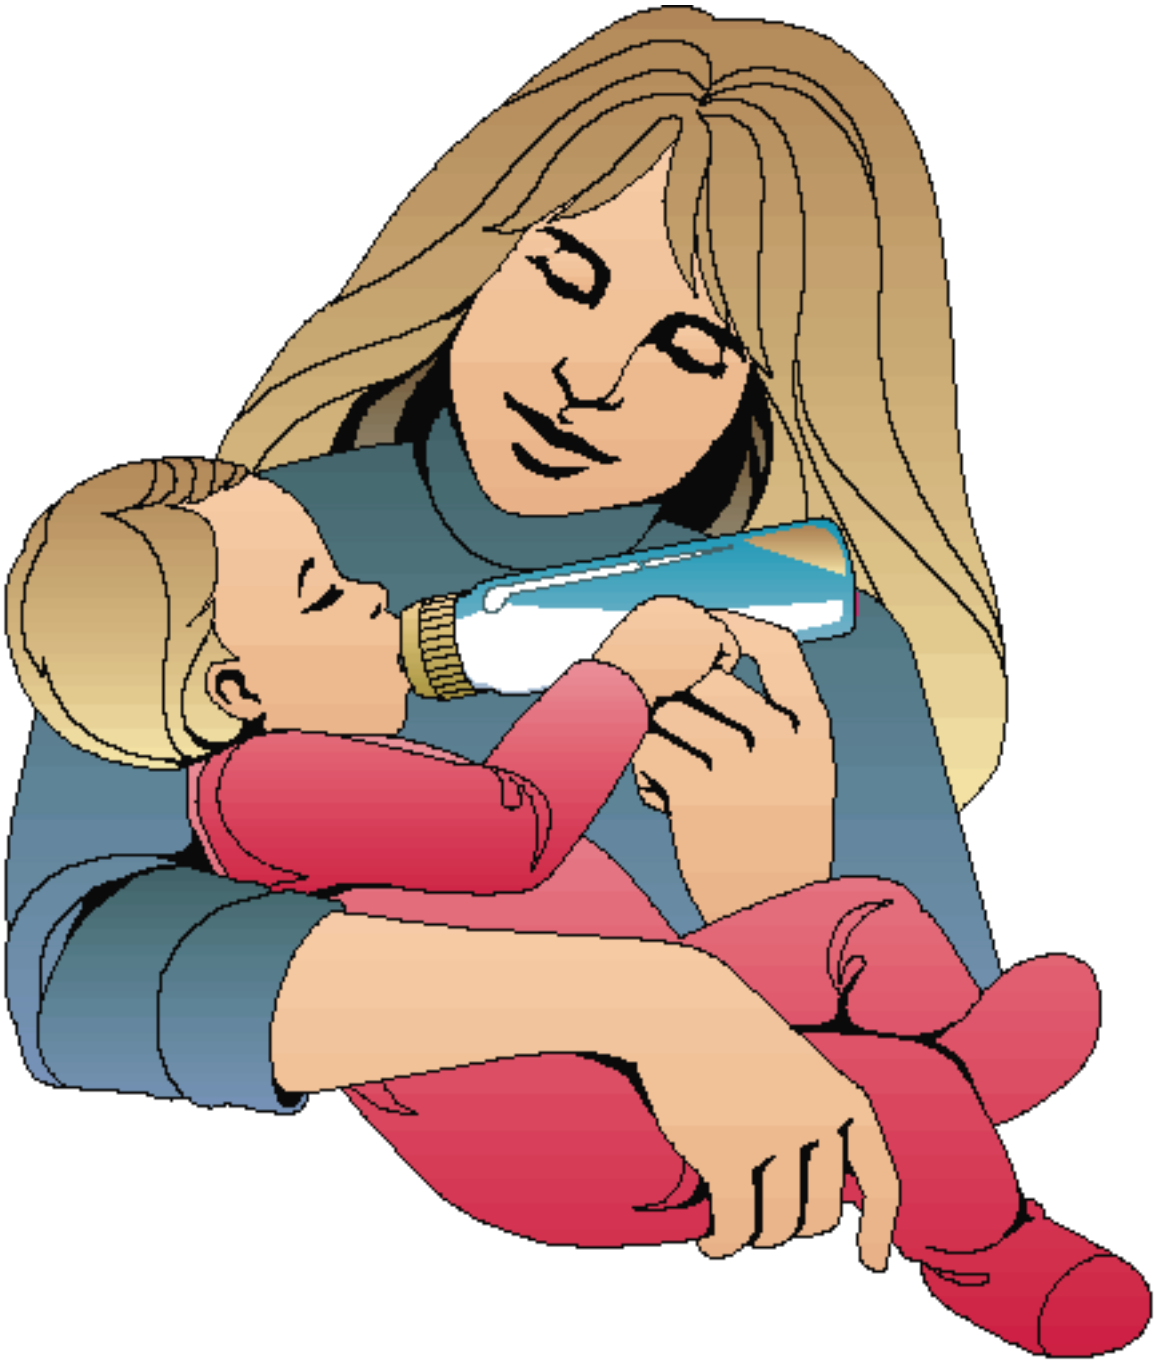

I got married so you would keep the house clean and the meals ready… Is that clear?

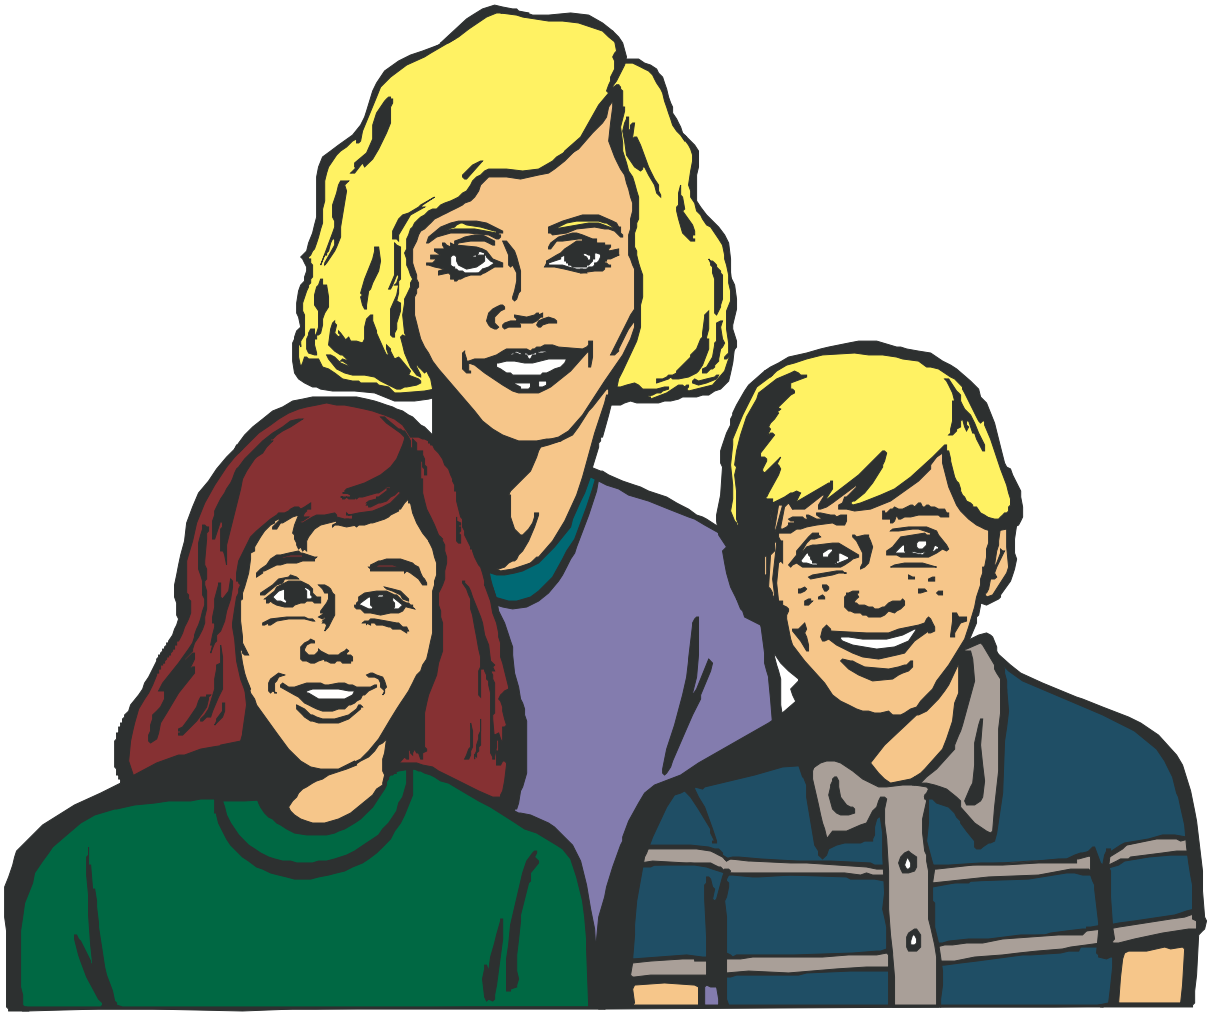

Plsal.org

Little Bobby was on the way … I was in a panic.

Plsal.org

I needed a father for my children.

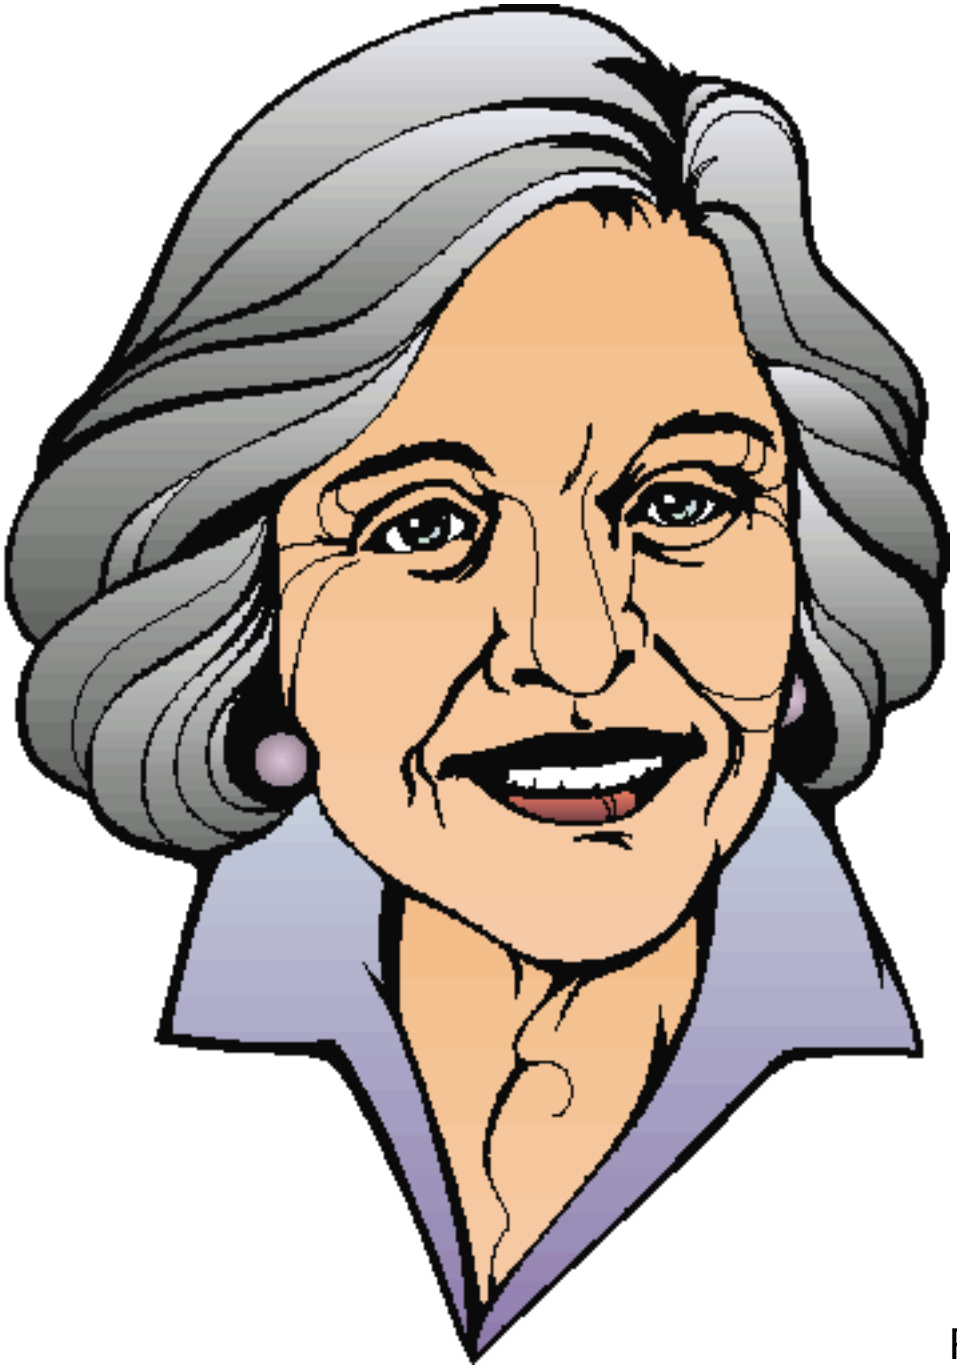

We went out and got drunk.
We slept together and moved in together.

Plsal.org

I was lonely and I didn’t want to be alone.

I divorced my wife and looked for someone younger. You only live once, right?

Plsal.org

We grew up in the same town. It was what everyone expected.

Plsal.org

As a foreign student I need to marry a US citizen so I can get citizenship.

Plsal.org

I have problems with depression. I need a husband to support me emotionally.

We went to the Lord and asked for His guidance. He brought us together in marriage in His time.

REASONS THAT PEOPLE GIVE FOR GETTING MARRIED

PLSAL.ORG

Are you kidding? ¡She is rich!

He had a good position in his company, and I was looking for someone who could give me a comfortable life.

We are both from a wealthy background. Our marriage serves to maintain the reputation of our families.

I saw her, she looked pretty good, and I decided to take a chance with her.

I needed to get out of my parent's house... I was sick and tired of being there.

I am gay, but marrying a women helps me to feel more accepted by society.

I prefer women because I am a lesbian, but it is more acceptable to be married to a man.

It is true that I have many women, but being married to one woman gives me an appearance of being a good man.

I like to be with many men, but to be married to one gives me an appearance of purity. I love that!

I needed companionship and he needed my money.

I married you to keep the house clean and have the food on the table when I want it. Is that clear?

Little Bobby was on the way... I was in a panic.

I needed a father for my children.

We went out and got drunk, slept together and decided to live together.

I was very lonely.

I divorced my wife and looked for someone younger. You only live once, right?

We grew up in the same town. Everyone expected it.

I am a foreign student and I need to marry a US citizen so I can get citizenship.

I have probems with depression and needed a husband to support me emotionally.